

Salmon River Joint School District No. 243

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

1651

New Board Member Orientation

The Board of Trustees and District staff shall offer each new Board member materials and professional development concerning the Board member's role and District personnel and services. The following methods shall be employed:

1. The Clerk of the Board shall offer the new member:
 - selected materials on the role and responsibilities of the Board.
 - a copy of the Board's policy manual
2. The Superintendent shall invite the new member to meet with him/her and other administrative personnel to discuss services they perform for the Board.
3. The Board will invite the new member to meet with individual Board members or the entire Board to provide training and answer questions.
