

Salmon River Joint School District No. 243

PERSONNEL

5360

Dress and Appearance

“One of the reasons we have schools is for students to learn what is appropriate. Young people learn what is appropriate in society by looking at their adult role models. Your dress and your behavior are what young people will take to be appropriate.” Harry K. Wong

Employee clothing and grooming shall be appropriate, shall not be immodest, and shall not be a disruption or interference to the educational process when the employee is on any school premises or at any school sponsored activities, regardless of location.

Enforcement

School District staff members who do not, in the judgment of the Principal/Supervisor, reasonably conform to this dress code shall receive a notice from the Principal/Program Supervisor.

Discipline for violation of this policy may involve actions up to and including dismissal.
